A Bath Iyengar Yoga Centre Event

About Richard Agar Ward

Richard is a senior pupil of BKS Iyengar. He has been practising Iyengar Yoga since 1975, teaching for 33 years and has attended classes in Pune on 17 visits. He is an approved teacher trainer and began training Introductory level Iyengar Yoga teachers in 1990. He also trains teachers in Bath at Junior Intermediate and senior levels and conducts the Junior Intermediate teacher training class at Iyengar Yoga Institute, Maida Vale, London. He is Moderator for the IYA(UK).

About Bath Iyengar Yoga Centre

A contemporary studio in a quiet and pleasant riverside enclave in the heart of Bath. The Centre is fully equipped so you do not need to bring any equipment.

Bath is a world heritage site set in beautiful countryside. It is easily accessible by car, rail and coach and the Yoga Centre is just a few minutes walk from the mainline railway and bus stations. Our central location is close to good cafes, restaurants, shops, accommodation to suit all budgets and tourist sites. The programme provides free time to explore the city and countryside if you wish.

About the intensive course

This course will give you an opportunity to focus on and deepen your practice. You will be given personal attention in a small group (maximum 15). It is suitable for those who regularly attend Intermediate level Iyengar Yoga classes.
